Bourbon Fiscal Court.

The Bourbon County Fiscal Court held its usual monthly meeting Saturday. Judge Denis Dundon presided with the following magistrates present: Fletcher Mann, E. P. Thomason, J. H. Hopkins, J. J. Redmon, J. P. Howell, E. P. Claybrook, J. T. Barlow and J. C. Keller.

Turnpike Supervisor Redmon read his report for the month of December, 1907, which was received and filed. The report showed there had been paid out for repairs, contracts and claims $2,277.47.

The amount of claims presented were not as large as usual.

The following amount were allowed and certified to Auditor for sheep that had been killed by dogs: Newton Smith, $36; L. C. Ashcraft, $12.

Ordered that $50 be paid to Mrs. E. B. Hedges for the purpose of paying part of the expense of an operation and caring for Chester Harp, an invalid in the Lexington Hospital.

Ordered that county execute quit claim deed to Mary E. Turney for rock quarry on her place, on Maysville and Lexington turnpike.

Ordered that $800 be appropriated to the Turnpike Supervisor to pay outstanding indebtedness.

Ordered that two warrants, for $15,000, the other $5,000, each bearing 6 per cent interest, to be drawn in favor of Geo. Alexander & Co., the first to take up warrant No. —, second to pay overcheck.

Squires Claybrook and Redmon were appointed committee to prepare and have published the financial condition of the county.

Ordered that $6 be appropriated to Mrs. Mote Rankin for care of her son.

Ordered that Turnpike Supervisor be authorized to purchase a load of hay at cheapest price obtainable.

REMNANTS.

Bargains in remnants of all kinds, at Frank & Co.'s.

Puts Out Pool Tables.

A prohibitory pool license of $500 for the first and $350 for all additional tables was passed by the General Council at Franklin, Ky.

This is raising the fee from $40 and $20, and the Council knew when it made the rate that no one in Franklin could pay it.

Read This Carefully.

When your Uncle Samuel takes a hand in affairs there is always something doing, and the aforesaid uncle has determined to have something to say about what should go through the mails, and how it should go, and so he has decreed, as has been published in the two last issues of the News, that after April 1st, 1908, all newspapers desiring to get the benefit of the low rates here tofore extended them must be sent only to paid up subscribers. If a subscriber is as much as nine months in arrears and his paper sent through the post-office, a penalty is put upon the publisher. This of course will put some of us to much trouble and loss for a while, but in the long run will be to the benefit of all. It will save the publisher from loss, and will protect the subscribers against imposition by having forced upon them papers they do not want, and paying large sums for papers that have long been read and destroyed.

We are going to comply with this law to the best of our ability, and to this end we are going to collect up all arrearages. We trust here will be but few who will just quit and leave arrearages unpaid, for such action will compel us to place the claims in the hands of collectors. We can be settled with personally on better terms than anyone else.

Look after this matter at once, as we have no discretion in the premises.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.

Special Prices on muslin underwear this week during Frank & Co.'s Big Sale.

MATRIMONIAL.

—The marriage of Miss Carrie Larue Stone to Mr. S. W. Willett will take place tomorrow afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. V. K. Shipp, on Cypress street, Elder C. W. Dick, of North Middletown, officiating. The wedding will be a very quiet one, no invitations having been issued.

Miss Stone is one of the loveliest young women ever raised in Bourbon county, and Mr. Willett is one of Carlisle's most promising young merchants.

BARGAINS FOR CASH.

Price & Co., Clothiers, will sell you a boys' long pants suit for $5, worth $10, $12 and $14. Sizes 31 to 36. Have 160 to sell. Cash only.

Attention, Ladies!

Attend Harry Simon's White Sale.

LASTS ALL WEEK.

Big sale at Frank & Co.'s lasts all week. Big bargains in every department.

Gooch to Preside.

W. J. Gooch, speaker of the House, will preside over the joint session of the House and Senate when the balloting for United States Senator begins, and he will continue in the chair at future sessions until the legislature adjourns or someone is elected Senator.

Republicans will get one officer in the House and this one will be a page. Under the resolution adopted last Thursday the Speaker shall name the messengers, to receive the same pay as pages, and one of these will be a Republican. The lucky youth is Tim McAuliffe, of Louisville. The appointment will be made by Mr. Gooch just to show that there is no bad feeling between the Republicans and the Democrats and that the minority is entitled to something even if it is only a messenger.

First Ballot Today.

The first ballot for the election of United States Senator will be taken today at noon in the Kentucky Legislature. Beckham will win in a walk.

BIG BARGAINS.

Frank & Co.'s Big Sale lasts the entire week. Big Bargains in every department.

When representatives of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association called upon President Roosevelt, he assured them of his conviction that action should be taken looking to the lower tariff on wood pulp. His words were taken as an implied promise that the presidential influence would be wielded in behalf of the victims of a tariff protected monopoly. A couple of weeks later Representatives Payne and Dalzell, "stand-patters," visited the White House and upon coming forth emphatically declared that there would be "no tariff tinkering of any sort" this year. Representative Dalzell stated unequivocally that there would be no tariff revision during the Congress which convenes on December 3. And Representatives Payne and Dalzell seem to have made their words good. In his message Mr. Roosevelt proposed "tariff revision" in the form of free culture, but Congressmen of his own political faith dispose of the matter with the curt announcement that "there will be no tariff revision." And they know—and Mr. Roosevelt seems to know that they know.

A Good Beginning.

A cablegram from Manila says: "The first bill was passed by the Philippine assembly Friday. It appropriates one million dollars for the construction of schools throughout the provinces. The bill was passed unanimously. Isaura Gabalon, a national member, who was the author of the first law, proposed several other measures at the same time that he introduced the school bill into the assembly. His measures included bills to construct a capitol building, and to cancel the indebtedness of provinces and municipalities to the insular government. It was unanimously decided to inaugurate legislation with the school bill."

It is a good sign that Philippine legislation began with an educational bill, and what is better this significant course was adopted unanimously. By wise action the Philippine assembly can strengthen the sentiment in favor of independence and give complete answer to the imperialists who say that the Filipinos are only half-civilized and incapable of self-government.

All Bad.

The New York World recently said that ninety-seven per cent of stock exchange transactions amounted to "gambling with marked cards." Thomas W. Lawson, of Boston, writes to the World this letter: "Wall Street protests your statement that 'ninety-seven per cent of stock exchange transactions are gambling with marked cards.' Although opposed to betting, I will wager any representative of Wall Street $10,000, my winnings to go to any charity selected by the World, and will increase the bet to $100,000, after details have been arranged, that the percentage is about 99 per cent."

Mr. Lawson may be accepted as an authority on this point. If he is even approximately correct the stock exchange ought to go.

Tax Adjustment.

The Revenue and Taxation Committee of the State Department Association Friday conferred regarding the amendment to the State constitution which will result in an adjustment of taxation laws. In a nut shell, according to Chairman Charles Carroll, the amendment will enable the adoption of a form of "expensive taxation" to adapt itself to the business conditions and changing situations of the State. It will be the avenue through which the double taxation now complained of can be eliminated, and will offer, in a large measure, the desired relief. The amendment will be incorporated in a bill submitted by Representative Sullivan, of Madison county. The bill will have the support of leaders of both Democrats and Republicans; as no partisanship is manifested.

The Duty of Children.

The duty of children to provide for their parents was set for a few days ago by the Kentucky Court of Appeals in the case of Jackson Holt, appealed from Casey county. It is recalled that Jackson Holt, aged seventy-four years, father of eleven children, conveyed to the appellants fifty acres of land in consideration of a contract that they provide for him the rest of his life. He left the home of the appellants shortly after the contract was made and the property deeded to them, and took up his abode with Ambrose Holt, another son. After ward suit was brought to rescind the contract on the grounds that fraud and undue influence had been used. The Court of Appeals held that the contract should be rescinded, as it was the duty of children to care for their parents.

Lame Shoulder Cured.

Lame shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles and quickly yields to a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Mrs. F. H. McElwee, of Biostown, New Brunswick, writes: "Having been troubled for some time with a pain in my shoulder, I decided to give Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial, with the result that I got prompt relief." For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.

Desperate Band.

A "ku-klux klan" is causing a reign of terror at Central City, the metropolis of Muhlenberg county. One citizen is dead and two others have been waylaid and seriously beaten. The gang, known as "Eighteen Honest Men," does its work under cover of darkness. Many leading citizens and officials have received threatening letters, among them being R. Y. Thomas, Jr., and Prosecuting Attorney John Soder received one of the letters, which threatened the life of himself and his son should he refuse to resign as member of the City Council. Soder is dead, due to fright.

Greater Than Roosevelt.

The Kentucky Union of the Society of Equity met at Henderson. Speeches were made condemning Gov. Willson's charges and declaring that the Society in Kentucky was greater than the Governor and that the National organization eclipsed President Roosevelt "with Secretary Taft thrown in."

Legislature to Investigate.

The Senate at Frankfort adopted a resolution providing for the appointment of a joint committee to thoroughly investigate the tobacco situation in Kentucky. The committee is given power to summon witnesses and employ legal counsel. It will also be instructed to inquire into the feasibility of using convict and reform school labor in the manufacture of tobacco.

Vreeland as Editor.

Articles of incorporation of the Frankfort Printing Company, with a capital stock of $20,000, have been filed. Hubert Vreeland, retiring Commissioner of Agriculture, is the principal stockholder. He will edit and conduct a new daily paper in Frankfort. R. G. Higdon, of Owensboro, and M. D. Coyle, of Frankfort, are associated with Vreeland.

Here's To Kentucky.

The Rev. Hugh McClelland, of Richmond, Ky., won the five dollar gold piece offered by the Louisville Times for the best toast to Kentucky. He is: "Not the oldest nor yet the youngest State, not the richest nor yet the poorest; not the largest nor yet the least, but take it all in all, for men and women, for flock and herds, for fields and skies, for happy homes and loving hearts, the best place outside of Heaven the Good Lord ever made."

French Predict Trouble.

The sensational section of the French press continues to dwell upon the probabilities of a clash between Japan and the United States. La Presse Friday published a long interview with M. Jacques Flach, the historian and professor in the College of France, who declares his belief that a conflict is certain for the reason that Japan seeks war.

He advises the American fleet to be on the watch for a sudden Japanese descent, and asks:

"Who knows if the attack made by the Japanese on the Russian ships at Chemulpo will not be repeated upon the American ships tomorrow?"

Continuing, M. Flach advises Great Britain and France to intervene and put an end to the troubles before it is too late.

The Journal des Debats, a more conservative paper, believes that in the event of a clash Japan would try to seize Hawaii as the territorial key to the situation.

Adrift at Sea.

Friends of Jack London, the author, are beginning to feel some anxiety over his failure to arrive at the Marquesas Islands, which he was expected to reach early in December. London left Hilo, Hawaii, October 7, in his boat, the Snark, for Marquesas, and is about a month overdue. It is supposed that the Snark, which is equipped with gasoline engines, is drifting about as the result of injury to her machinery. Besides London, Mrs. London, a couple of friends and a small crew are on board the vessel. The steamer Mariposa is due at San Francisco January 26 from La Hi Tahiti and it is hoped that she will bring news of the party.

Every Rexall Formula Is Public Property—And Always Has Been

This is an age of inquiry. Not since the time of the Civil War has there been so much agitation in the minds of the people on various subjects.

People "want to know" about everything.

We do not say that the public has grown skeptical—quite the contrary. We believe it is a day and age of enlightened, intelligent inquiry after facts.

Each man and each woman now-a-days wants to do his and her own thinking. They are not looking for any concentrated essence of wisdom boiled down and given to them in capsule form. They want to figure out for themselves what is right, and what is wrong, and what to do about it.

Public sentiment has forced the government of the United States to pass a law compelling medicine manufacturers to state on their labels any injurious ingredients their remedies may contain.

We believe that the Rexall remedies have had as much to do with the creation of this sentiment as any other one single element in the country.

Why?

Simply because the Rexall remedies, from their inception several years ago, started out on an entirely new line.

The first principle in the Rexall platform was one remedy for each ill—not a cure-all.

Second—no secret combinations. Every formula has always been open to the public; anyone can know what he is taking when he buys Rexall—and always could.

Third—every Rexall remedy has been sold on the basis of "money back" if you are not more than satisfied.

This is frank, square, open-handed business, that's all. But it made Rexall the greatest success in the medicine world in a very short time.

Rexall "93" HAIR TONIC

The famous Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is one of the 300 Rexall Remedies. It is composed in chief of Resorcin, Beta Naphthol and Pilocarpin.

Resorcin is one of the latest and most effective germ-killing discovered by science, and in connection with Beta Naphthol, which is both germicidal and antiseptic, a combination is formed which not only destroys the germs which rob the hair of its nutriment, but creates a clean and healthy condition of the scalp, which prevents the development of new germs.

Pilocarpin is a well-known agent for restoring the hair to its natural color, where the loss of color has been due to a disease of the scalp. It is not a coloring matter or dye.

This combination of curatives mixed with alcohol as a stimulant, perfects the most effective remedy for hair and scalp troubles known to-day. Per bottle, 50c.

THE Rexall STORE

Lexington Tobacco Market.

The price for tobacco sold at auction in the Lexington market, probably reached the high water mark Wednesday when a quantity was sold at the Shelbyville warehouse by W. L. Sowers, of Valley View, Madison county, for $29.00 per hundred pounds. This price breaks the record of any received for the white burley 1907 crop.

The amount sold Wednesday was 386,160 pounds. The bidding was unusually active all the way through, as the average price for the day, $10.74, shows.

The tobacco continues to come in from all parts of the burley belt and the growers all express themselves as being highly pleased with the prices received.

The American Tobacco Company purchases a considerable quantity of the offerings, but the large number of competitive buyers make the market interesting. The bidders on the crop which sold at 29 cents started at a low offer and the price was run to 29 cents in a few minutes; the highest price ever recorded for this grade of tobacco.

Kentucky Not Alone.

Without failing to admit and to deeply deplore the recent and yet existent bad state of affairs and manifestation of the mob spirit in Kentucky, resulting in the reckless destruction of property and the sacrifice of human life, yet she cannot be pointed out as the only State where such occurrences take place. Over in Indiana, last Wednesday, according to a dispatch to the daily papers, the following took place: "As the result of three hours rioting, in which a mob of a thousand held possession of Muncie's business district, two bystanders were shot, one alleged strikebreaker was beaten up, perhaps 50 received minor injuries from stones and bricks. The rioting only ceased when every street car and interurban car was sent to the barn. In the riot, which grew out of the strike of street car conductors and motormen, one street car was demolished, an interurban car was badly damaged, window lights in business houses were broken out and other damage done."

Woman's Suffrage Bill.

By a unanimous vote at a mass meeting represented by seven different influential Lexington and State organizations, held in Curry Hall at Lexington, Wednesday afternoon, a resolution was passed favoring the introduction of a bill in the present Legislature asking that women be admitted to equal rights and privileges as regards school suffrage, control and administration of educational affairs of the State.

The resolution was adopted after a full and able discussion of the question engaged in by Mrs. A. M. Harrison, Mrs. Luella Wilcox St. Clair, Miss Laura Clay, of Lexington, and Dr. F. W. Hinit, President of Central University, who was the chief speaker of the occasion. The address of Dr. Hinit, it is said, placed him with the leaders of the great educators of the country.

DON'T EXPERIMENT

You Will Make No Mistake if You Follow This Paris Citizen's Advice.

Never neglect your kidneys. If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness, it's time to act and no time to experiment. They are all symptoms of kidney trouble, and you should seek a remedy which is known to cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use. No need to experiment. It has cured many stubborn cases in Paris. Follow the advice of a Paris citizen and be cured yourself.

Alex Talbott, grocer, living corner Henderson and Eighth streets, Paris, Ky., says: "I suffered a severe strain by lifting a platform in my shed which greatly affected the small of my back. The least cold I would contract settled in my kidneys causing severe pains, and the kidney secretions would be highly colored and irregular. Having doctored a great deal without obtaining a cure, I had almost believed my case hopeless when a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills so I procured a box at Wilson's drug store. I received such good results from this use that I am very thankful to my friend for calling my attention to them, and also very grateful to Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Orders Goebel's Picture Taken From State Documents.

State Superintendent of Public Printing J. W. Hedden was Wednesday instructed by Governor Willson to have new checks and documents made for use with the picture of Henry Clay on them where the likeness of William Goebel had appeared before. The checks of the Commonwealth, issued by the State Treasurer have borne the picture of Goebel for almost eight years.

In giving Superintendent Hedden this instruction Governor Willson said that he hoped his action would not be construed as partisan, as he claimed to have no feeling in the matter at all. He said that there had been too much factional and political strife in Kentucky and so far as it lay within his power he proposed to eliminate from the State's business every source and trace or reminder of that strife and turmoil.

Hardly Negotiable.

Stories have been told of buttons, tacks and various extraneous substances found in contribution boxes, but it is seldom that a church member strikes a blow so severe as was that delivered by Amos Budd of Pottersville on one occasion.

It was at the close of a missionary sermon that Mr. Budd, whose wont it was to contribute 10 cents to each of the charities to the support of which the church subscribed, was seen to take a blue slip from his pocket and look at it keenly and affectionately.

When after a slight but evident hesitation he dropped the slip, carefully folded, into the box Deacon Lane, who was passing it, could hardly refrain from an exclamation of joy.

"The Lord will bless you, Brother Budd," he said, when the sermon was over, hurrying down the aisle to overtake the prosperous grocer.

"I hope so," returned Mr. Budd dryly, "but I'm afraid you calculate on that being a check that I dropped in the box. It wasn't. 'Twas a receipted bill for kerosene the church owed me last year, and it had been overlooked. Of course it's just the same as money, though, when you come to that."—Youth's Companion.

What His Music Bill Meant.

An architect who had planned and superintended the building of a west side residence had turned over the completed house to its owner. The architect had been in nowise hampered in the expenditure of money, yet his customer, being a good business man, gave his personal attention to the details of the cost.

"What does this mean?" he asked on a final inspection of the bills. "Three hundred dollars to a quartet of trained musicians. How can anybody have given a concert already in my house when no one is living there?"

"They were testing the acoustics of the rooms," the architect explained. "Every room in your house has been submitted to that test. There will be plenty of music there later on, and I certainly wouldn't want to finish the house without being sure that the sounding properties were satisfactory. In these days every private house or hotel that amounts to anything is put through the acoustic test before it leaves the architect's hands."—New York Sun.

Blind Men's Dreams.

One of the most intelligent inmates of a blind asylum, who came into the world blind, says that he never dreams of the things he has read about and never dreams of any thing or person that he has not in some way come in personal contact with. He dreams of music, of the voices of persons he knows, of such incidents as might happen at the home or in some place in which he has actually been, but never of incidents in other places or in other lands. Even although he has read descriptions of localities, of natural beauties, of the appearance of a street or a city, no idea of what they look like comes to him in the fancies of his sleep. "There is a class of blind people who become blind when quite young. Such blind people never dream of any scene or object except those which have remained in the memory from what they actually saw before they became blind."—Pearson's Weekly.

Mail Subscribers Must Pay in Advance.

The United States Postoffice Department has issued an order, No. 907, dated December 4, 1907, amending the postal regulations, which will hereafter compel newspapers to enforce business principles in their circulation department and probably reduce the press-room waste that has cut some figure in the price of white paper.

The new order is intended to reduce the volume of second-class mail matter made up of newspapers and magazines, which the government now carries at one cent a pound, entailing a big annual loss to the postoffice department.

It practically limits the use of the mails at these cheap postage rates to papers sent to bona-fide subscribers, paid in advance, and publishers will be fined four cents for every pound of mail sent out in violation of the regulations.

In order that the new rule may not be harsh in its application, the postoffice department has provided that a reasonable time shall be allowed to publishers to secure renewals of subscriptions before cutting off subscribers whose time has expired or who are in arrears. This time allowed is fixed at months 3 for daily papers, for 9 months for semi-weekly papers, and four months for monthly magazines.

Under the operation of this rule publishers will find an amount equal to the transient postage rates, four cents a pound, for every daily newspaper sent to a subscribers over three months in arrears and for every semi-weekly newspaper sent to a subscriber nine months in arrears.

Publishers generally will, we believe, be glad that this regulation has been made by the Postoffice Department, as it will effectually settle the question whether mail subscribers should be cut off at the expiration of their subscriptions. In the past it often happened that subscribers who were carried over the time for which they had paid complained because they were not discontinued, while others who were promptly cut off at expiration took offense and felt that this was an imputation on their honesty or ability to pay.

The new regulation establishes for the future a business-like custom that it is fair to publishers and subscribers, and relieves the matter of all embarrassment to either side.

There is no doubt that the old custom was abused by publishers and subscribers, by the former in sending papers and bills to people who wished to discontinue and by the latter in accepting and reading papers and then refusing to pay for the ground that the subscription had expired.

In compliance with the new law we will at once send out bills and renewal notices to all mail subscribers who may be in arrears, and hopes to have prompt responses in order that there may be no violation on our part.

In the past we have never used these columns to urge payment of subscriptions or arrearages, leaving such business details to the circulation department, but we believe the new postal regulations, requiring that all subscribers be cut off if nine months in arrears, on penalty of forfeiture of second-class postage privileges, justifies this explanation, which will be run in several issues in order that all our mail subscribers may understand the new order of things.

How is Your Digestion.

Mrs. Mary Doling of No. 223 Eighth avenue, San Francisco, recommends a remedy for stomach trouble. She says: "Gratitude for the wonderful effect of Electric Bitters in a case of acute indigestion, prompts the testimonial. I am fully convinced that for stomach and liver trouble Electric Bitters is the best remedy on the market today." This great tonic and alternative medicine invigorates the system, purifies the blood and is especially helpful in all forms of female weakness. 50c at Oberdorfer's drug store.

Make-Up of General Assembly.

In the present General Assembly of Kentucky there will be an absence of ministers of the gospel. The Democrats nominated a number, but practically all of them were defeated at the polls. Out of 133 members, the occupations of considerably over 100 are given. In this assembly there are 39 farmers, 39 lawyers, seven physicians, four school teachers, three druggists, three bankers, six merchants, two insurance agents, one preacher of the gospel, one dentist, one real estate agent, two editors, one stock trader, one carpenter, one tobaccoist, one grocer, one miner, one lumber man, one saloon keeper, one store-keeper, gauger, one traveling agent, one manufacturer, two clerks, one painter, one railroad clerk and one contractor.

Don't miss the Carpet Opportunity.

Do you like pretty things? Then you will want to see the handsome outlay of fine carpets, rugs and draperies, that has never before been shown in this city—and the like of which is seldom met with outside of the Metropolitan centers. Mere words cannot give an adequate idea of the beauty of this array.

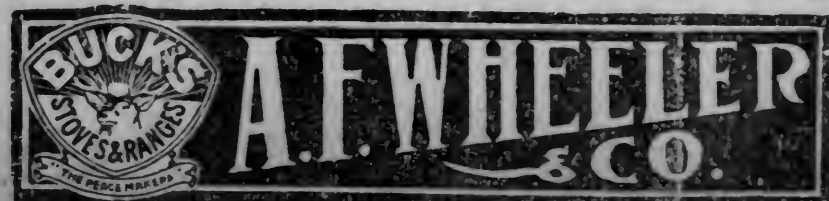

There are rich creations in Oriental and floral designs, dainty subdued effects in duo-tones, and vivid patterns in light cherry colors. You can have no idea of the variety, good taste, and attractiveness of this assortment until you have seen it.

And you will be surprised to learn of the comparatively small cost of even the best offerings.

Franchise Ordinance.

An ordinance was passed at the last meeting of the Paris City Council, offering for sale to the highest bidder one or more telephone franchises to be sold publicly on Wednesday, Jan. 22. The passage of the ordinance was in response to a statement of the attorney of the Home Telephone company of this city, who are operating under a franchise that limits their charge for telephones for residences to $1.25 per month and business houses to $2.00.

The East Tennessee Telephone company is not limited under its franchise to charge a certain amount for residence and business phones, and as a result of the advance in the cost of material and labor the Home Company is operating at a loss. They expect to buy one of the franchises offered and advance their charges for telephones to that charged by the competing company.

Will Ask for Indictments Against Tobacco Trust.

Members of the Society of Equity at Lexington have on foot a scheme to go before the Fayette county grand jury, and ask indictments against the agents of the American Tobacco Company on the grounds that they are violating the Anti-Trust law of the State. This act was passed in May 1890 and imposes a penalty of $500 to $5,000 fine and from six to twelve months in jail for each violation.

The Governor's Staff.

Governor Willson Saturday announced the members of his official staff. He has confined himself strictly to the letter of the law, appointing only ten. Former Governors have not followed the statute so closely, appointing their honorary colonels generally in any number. The Governor's list is as follows:

Adjutant General P. P. Johnston, Lexington.
Colonel George A. Newman, Jr., Louisville.
Colonel W. G. Dearing, Judge Advocate General, Flemingsburg.
Colonel Thomas H. Hays, Inspector General, Valley Station.
Colonel L. J. Crawford, Newport.
Colonel James L. Hackett, Commissary, Louisville.
Colonel J. W. McCullough, Quartermaster, Owensboro.
Colonel Frank Coles, Ashland.
Colonel J. Buford Hendrick, Frankfort.
Colonel T. A. Fields, Ashland.

THEATRICAL.

"IN OLD KENTUCKY."

"In Old Kentucky," the popular and always welcome drama of Southern life, will be presented again at the Paris Grand Thursday, January 16th.

This play is certainly one of the most remarkable melodramas ever written. It is now in the fifteenth consecutive season of its career on the American stage. Time, that frightful ravager of dramatic life, does not harm it, fate always plays with it. It stands in the front rank and holds its own with the best of the modern plays of the day. The charm of the piece lies in its perpetual freshness and vigor. Its heart interest is simple and direct, its scenic attractiveness does not depend upon any passing fad, and its most thrilling scene has for its foundation that most stirring contest the horse race. There is nothing temporal or fading in the whole play. For this reason it is as good to-day as it was yesterday, and as good yesterday as fifteen years ago, when it was first produced. The tale of the wild flower maid of the Kentucky mountains, Madge Briery, is nearly as well known as that of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Any detailed description of how Madge saves her lover's life by swinging across a chasm on a slender rope and later saves his wealth by riding his jockeyless race horse to victory is quite unnecessary. Then there is a wonderful barnyard scene wherein a score of little pickaninnies prove very entertaining in their singing, dancing and performing on brass instruments. The same wise judgment in furnishing an adequate production and a competent cast that has always marked the presentation of "In Old Kentucky" will be maintained as long as it continues its career on the American stage.

New Board of Control.

A new Board of Control, to have complete charge of the insane asylums, the School for the deaf, at Danville, and the Feeble-minded Institute, in Frankfort, is planned, and it is now practically certain that it will be created. The Democrats generally are in favor of a new board, and this means that the members of the old board will lose out, although one or more of them might be elected. Under the plan the prison commission will be left as it is now and will not be disturbed.

Two prominent Democrats are already candidates for the positions on the new Board of Control. One of them is Judge S. W. Hager, who led the Democratic ticket in the last State election. The other is Dr. M. G. Watson, who is now a member of the State Senate.

LIVE STOCK AND CROP NOTES

—In Woodford county, last week, there were several crops of tobacco sold aggregating about 50,000 pounds, for from $12 to $15.50.

—J. B. Haggins has nominated 306 colts for the Futurity of 1910, the largest number of nomination ever made by one owner.

—J. W. Newman, of Woodford, bought 1,000 bushels of wheat from S. D. Elmore last week and the same amount from Theoph. Mastin, at $1 a bushel.

—Jos. Hall sold to Jonas Weil 94 head of fancy export cattle. The cattle were shipped Saturday and averaged 1,055 pounds. Mr. Hall received 5 1-4 cents per pound.

—Dr. Wiley, the government's chemical expert, declares that the strawberry jam of commerce is made to glucose, hayseed and coal tar. The hayseed is supposed to give it a genuine strawberry jam grit.

—An exchange says the man in town thinks of some day moving to a farm, while the farmer's ambition is to live in the city. Yet these men rarely change places. It is simply a feeling of unrest that doesn't do much harm.

—Bishop Hibler & Bro., shipped last week to Cincinnati 400 hogs, averaged 158 pounds, that cost four cents; a load of heifers and steers, average 1,050 pounds, that cost 3 1-2 cents; also one load of 1,350 pound cattle, that cost 4 3-4 cents. They sold five Jersey milk cows at $65 per head.

Words of Praise For Mayor O'Brien.

The action taken a few days ago by Mayor James M. O'Brien in regard to the tobacco situation was not only appreciated by our Paris business men, but the business men of the city of Maysville, who considered it a wise move, and asked the Maysville Bulletin to suggest to Mayor Stallcup, of that city, to take similar action. The citizens of Paris can at all times depend upon Mayor O'Brien taking the lead in all matters pertaining to the welfare and protection of their property, and words of commendation can be heard on all sides for the prompt action he took in this matter.

Brought Here for Safekeeping.

Fearing an attempt of violence from the hands of a mob of infuriated citizens of Nicholas county that was reported to be forming with a view of meeting out justice on the accused, Steve Massie, aged about 60 years, a farmer, of Nicholas, was brought to this city late Friday afternoon by an officer from Carlisle and lodged in jail for safekeeping.

Massie is charged with assault upon his eighteen-year-old daughter, Jessie Massie, who is said to be in a critical condition, and at the instance of his son-in-law, a warrant was sworn out and he was placed under arrest.

Massie states that he is entirely innocent of the charge placed against him and that his arrest and imprisonment was nothing short of prejudice on the part of some members of his family with whom he is not on very friendly terms.

HER GOLDEN BALL.

An Incident of Revolutionary Times on Long Island.

Probably no game of ball by professional or college team was ever watched with such inner interest, but with such outward indifference, as one described in Gertrude Vanderbilt's "Social History of Flatbush." It happened in Revolutionary times, when the British soldiers were stationed on Long Island. The inhabitants had hidden their valuables in all possible places. One lady concealed some gold coins in a ball shaped pincushion of the kind worn by the Dutch housewife, suspended at her side.

She was sitting sewing one day when a party of British soldiers entered the room. A young officer, spying what to him was a novelty, cut with his sword the ribbon by which the cushion was hung and began a game of ball.

Soon the rest of the company joined the sport. Boisterously from hand to hand the ball was batted to and fro. It was roughly snatched and tossed, and sometimes it fell into the ashes of the fireplace and barely escaped conflagration. Now and again a soldier would catch it on the tip of his sword and send it spinning on with a rent in its side.

Every moment threatened to reveal the precious contents. To show the least anxiety was to betray the secret, and the owner was forced to sit unmoved, apparently intent on her work, and to see her fortune flying through the air at the mercy of the enemy. At last the cushion, torn and battered, was returned to its mistress, and the intruders, tired of their play, left the house.

CONFUSED IDENTITY.

Odd Things Said by Folks When Taken by Surprise.

People taken by surprise sometimes say what they do not mean. A car full of people were entertained recently by a conversation which neither of the participants found comic. Young People tell the story:

A train was waiting in a dim station at the end of a dull afternoon. Lights were not yet lighted, and it was decidedly dusky within the car.

An excited and nervous woman hurried in, hurried down the aisle, peering at the passengers as she went, and at last as she dropped into a seat beside another woman exclaimed, with a sigh of relief:

"Oh, it's you!" "Certainly not!" snapped the startled stranger, turning, whereupon the mistaken traveler hastily apologized: "I beg your pardon, but it's so dark in here I was quite sure you were."

Another woman in similar circumstances became even more confused. She was waiting for her sister in a railway station when a gentleman, looking for his wife and misled by a general resemblance in figure and clothing, stepped up behind her and, laying his hand on her shoulder, exclaimed:

"Thank goodness, Emma, it's you!" The name he used happened to be really hers, which made the sudden familiarity even more startling. She jumped nervously.

"You're mistaken, sir!" she gasped. "I'm Emma, but she isn't me!"

Concious Sisters.

"I didn't think you'd get so angry because I said I thought you ought to wear gray suede shoes with your gray dress instead of white ones. I didn't mean to offend you," her friend very sweetly apologized.

"Never mind," she returned softly. "It was all right, but it made me angry for two reasons—first, because I had to wear the white shoes because I didn't have any others that were presentable, and second, because when I left my family of sisters, who made every possible sort of comment on my clothes, I declared I would never stand it from anybody else. I said to myself that whenever a friend got so friendly that she thought she could treat me like a sister I'd shake her."—New York Press.

A Cause For Thanks.

In the audience at a lecture on China there was a very pious old lady who was slightly deaf. She thought the lecturer was preaching, and every time he came to a period she would say "Amen!" or some other pious exclamation. The people in the audience, which was composed mostly of the village church members, knew she was being reverent and did not even smile when she exclaimed until finally the lecturer mentioned some faroff city in China, saying, "I live there." At this point clearly and distinctly could be heard the old lady saying, "Thank God for that."

An Unusual Task.

"Hello, Jack, old boy, writing home for money?" "No."

"What are you taking so much trouble over, then? You've been fussing and fuming over it for the last two hours."

"I'm trying to write home without asking for money."

Then He Was Mad.

"Why don't you give the devil his due?" he snapped.

"I can't, dear," replied his wife. "You're in such fine health now he may have to wait awhile."—Atlanta Constitution.

Remarkable.

"She's the most remarkable elderly woman I ever saw."

"Doesn't show her age?" "Not that. Doesn't seem to regret it."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

One wise counsel is better than the strength of many.—Euripides.

Cures Woman's Weaknesses.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Fyfe one of the Editorial Staff of THE ELECTRIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helenias Dioica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." He continues "in Helenias we have a medication which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helenias (Unicorn root). Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhea; atonic (weak) condition of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women; constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakness of the condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhea (suppressed or absent monthly periods), arising from or accompanying an atonic condition of the digestive organs and aemic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helenias, and the medical properties of which it most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says: "It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions and general enfeeblement, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root: "In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal: "Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhea (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

Don't Take the Risk.

When you have a bad cough or cold do not let it drag along until it becomes chronic bronchitis or develops into an attack of pneumonia, but give it the attention it deserves and get rid of it. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and you are sure of prompt relief. From a small beginning the sale and use of this preparation has extended to all parts of the United States and to many foreign countries. Its many remarkable cures of coughs and colds have won for it this wide reputation and extensive use. Sold by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.

By Act of Legislature.

By act of the legislature Texas drove the Standard Oil Company from the Lone Star State when the Standard Oil had overreached the limit to endurance. The Standard Oil Company is considered a Sunday School Trust by the side of the American Tobacco Company, says editor Allen of the Cincinnati Democrat.

The Pure Food Law.

Secretary Wilson says, "One of the objects of the law is to inform the consumer of the presence of certain harmful drugs in medicines." The law requires that the amount of chloroform, opium, morphine, and other habit forming drugs be stated on the label of each bottle. The manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, have always claimed that their remedy did not contain any of these drugs, and the truth of this claim is now fully proven, as no mention of them is made on the label. This remedy is not only one of the safest, but one of the best in use for coughs and colds. Its value has been proven beyond question during the many years it has been in general use. For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.

Save This Anyway.

Here is a simple homemade mixture as given by an eminent authority on Kidney diseases, who makes the statement in a New York daily newspaper, that it will relieve almost any case of Kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Bright's disease. He states that such symptoms as lame back, pain in the side, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night; painful and discolored urination, are readily overcome. Here is the recipe; try it:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here in town is authority that these ingredients are all harmless and easily mixed at home by shaking well in a bottle. This mixture has a peculiar healing and soothing effect upon the entire Kidney Urinary structure, and often overcomes the worst forms of rheumatism in just a little while. This mixture is said to remove all blood disorders and cure the Rheumatism by forcing the kidneys to filter and strain from the blood and system all uric acid and foul, decomposed waste matter, which cause these afflictions. Try it if you aren't well. Save the Prescription.

ACCIDENT FAKIRS.

Men Who Are Able to Swindle the Insurance Companies.

"Accident insurance companies are very suspicious of all accidents involving injury to the knee, for it is on his knee that the accident fakir mainly relies."

The speaker, a surgeon, frowned and went on:

"There are men who make a living out of fake accidents. They travel from city to city; they insure in every company that issues accident policies; then, with a fake injury, they proceed to collect dues."

"An accident fakir—for so we call these men—has usually a knee that he can slip out at will. He purposely stumbles over an open trap or some hard, sharp obstacle, puts his knee out deftly, raises a big holler so as to secure a lot of witnesses and then hobbles home."

"He doesn't notify his insurance companies till the next day. By then his knee is so swollen that an accurate examination of it is impossible. We cannot tell whether it is one of those fake, self-slipping knees or not. So we pay the man his money, and he seeks new pastures."

"There was one man—he is in jail now—who in nine years collected over $11,000 in accident policies with the help of a knee that he could slip out as easily as I slip my hand out of my glove."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

HOW TO WIN BATTLES.

Men Who Hit What They Shoot at Are the Determining Factor in War.

Other things being equal, good shooting is the determining factor in war. Poorly drilled and hastily organized bodies of men can give a good account of themselves if they know how to shoot and hit what they shoot at.

In our war for independence, says Army and Navy Life, the colonists were woodsmen. They carried and used their arms to supply their homes with food and to protect them from the savage. As marksmen they vastly outclassed the British, and that more than anything else gave Washington the final victory.

Again, in our great civil war mark the effect of a general knowledge of firearms. In the south were sporting people. They were fond of riding and hunting. Shooting at target and at game entered into their sports and pastimes. The north was commercial.

Its men knew little or nothing of firearms save the flintlocks of their grandfathers, objects of curiosity in their shops or homes, except in the far west, where the life of 1776 was still being lived. The result was that in the east the southern troops were generally victorious for a couple of years until the northern troops learned to shoot. What little success the north had was in the west, where they were little better than a standoff.

A Case of Bluff.

"Talking about bluffing," said the horseman, "there was a chap who thought blacksmithing looked simple and easy, and so, being out of work, he decided to have a try at it. He went to a smith and asked for a job."

"Well," said the smith, "you are a strong, likely looking young fellow. What experience have you had?"

"Eleven years," was the prompt answer.

"All right. I'll try you," said the blacksmith. "Shoe that mare while I go home to dinner."

"The smith on his return from dinner frowned and said to the new hand: 'What! Haven't you got that mare shod yet?'"

"The bluffer bit his lip, flushed and replied: 'I can't get her confounded foot in the vise.'—Exchange.

Judge Martin decided that certain evidence was inadmissible. The attorney took strong exception to the ruling and insisted that it was admissible.

"I know, your honor," said he warmly, "that it is proper evidence. Here I have been practicing at the bar for forty years, and now I want to know if I am a fool."

"That," quietly replied the court, "is a question of fact and not of law, so I won't pass any opinion upon it, but will let the jury decide."—Liverpool Mercury.

The Eternal Sea.

Edith is one of the children in a household where Sabbath observances are of the old school type of severity.

"I shall always stay here," she declared at the close of her second day at the beach, "because they don't put the sea away on Sunday."

A Likely Story.

The Pastor—I hope you are not going fishing on Sunday, my little man. The Boy—Oh, no, sir. I am merely carrying this stick so that that wicked boy across the street will not suspect that I am on my way to Sunday school. —London Illustrated Bits.

Hatched.

One afternoon three small children were popping corn, taking turns at the popper.

"Oh, mamma," exclaimed little Dorothy, clapping her hands gleefully, "every one of my corns hatched out!"—Chicago News.

His Tenner.

Austere Person—I can't tip you, young man, unless you have change for a tenner. Walter (sizing him up)—Keep your dime, sir. I haven't a nickel about me.—Chicago Tribune.

Generosity will win favor with any one, especially when it is accompanied by humility.—Goethe.

Daughter Dead; Mother Dying.

Miss Anna Bright, a beautiful and popular young lady, of Richmond, Ky. was horribly burned Saturday, and she died in terrible agony. Miss Bright had been confined to her bed for several days, and while alone Saturday her screams attracted the attention of her mother, who ran into the room to find her daughter standing in blaze from head to foot.

Mrs. Bright, who is about seventy years old, sprang to her daughter's rescue. The screams of both attracted James Brock, colored, who arrived just in time to extinguish the blaze on the mother, who is probably fatally burned.

Sixteen Children Killed.

Sixteen children were killed and forty others were injured, several fatally, in a jam during a rush for better seats at an entertainment in the public hall at Barnsley, England.

Thaw Jury Secured.

The second jury to try Harry K. Thaw for the killing of Stanford White, was completed late Friday and on yesterday morning the prosecution presented its direct case against the defendant.

As a whole the jury is made up of intelligent business men most of whom are at middle age or over.

When the panel had finally been completed, after many delays, and after the exercise of twenty-three peremptory challenges by the defense and twenty by the people, Thaw announced that he was entirely satisfied and in fact well pleased with the twelve men chosen.

Milward Refuses Place.

Stanley Milward, of Lexington, notified Auditor James that he declined to accept the position of Fire Marshal, tendered him Friday afternoon, when the declination of C. M. Barnett was received by the Auditor. Mr. Milward stated that business arrangements which he has made lately would preclude his acceptance to the place.

Friends of Mr. Milward say, however, that he has in view a position, which, while paying a trifle more, will prove more congenial and will not necessitate that he give all of his time to its duties, as would be the case were he to accept the Fire Marshalship.
